Rodents look for food, water, and shelter. If you leave food in easily accessible location, it will attract rodents and other animals, including insects.

Mice and rats are determined scavengers and will easily eat through most food storage containers such as paper, cardboard and plastic in short order. The most effective containers to keep rodents out are made from metal.

Fast Facts

Rodent Resistant Food Storage

For additional information visit

- http://ehs.ucr.edu/environmentalhealth/

For Pest Control at UCR call (951) 827-4214