Training

Assessment
Walk-in Coolers

Test
Participants must successfully answer 3 of 5 items below:

True or False

1. Hypothermia is a cold stress resulting when the body temperature drops below 96°F. True

2. It is important to dress appropriately with protective gears when working in a walk-in cooler. True

3. It is recommended to work alone when you are in the walk-in cooler. False

Multiple Choice

4. Which of the following is not a cold stress?
   a. Numbness
   b. Frostbite
   c. Immersion foot
   d. Cold feet

5. What is the best way to prevent fire?
   a. Take frequent breaks
   b. Be aware
   c. Know warning signs
   d. All of the above